Commanding an elevated position from Carr Lane offering over 3300 square feet of living accommodation is this substantial detached residence within a in a highly convenient Uppermill location. Built in 1880 the house retains many original features including fireplaces and windows and as you would expect of a grand house built at this time the room sizes and ceiling heights are all generous in proportion. The two front facing reception rooms are the real gems of the house and can only be appreciated in person.
